Prema K finds out more about dowsing..

A friend went for a dowsing session recently, for her relationship problem. She explained how the session started with psychic healer, Kajal Karia, placing a relationship chart on the table. After this, she held a crystal suspended by a thread, in her hand and closed her eyes in deep concentration.

My friend got all the answers to her questions and was satisfied. And I was introduced to a new kind of healing.

Fashion statement

I discovered that dowsing is similar to tarot card reading in many ways. Kajal has a collection of crystals, stones, runes, and tarot cards in her office. The crystals are her dowsing tools. Charts are used to find deeper meanings and solutions to problems.

The relationship between the dowser and dowsing tool is very important. Every dowser has a different way of communicating with it. When the dowser asks a question, the crystal moves in a particular way. The dowser interprets this as answers to the questions.

Dowsing is a shortcut to finding answers and solutions to problems and can be done anywhere, unlike tarot, where the cards have to be spread out and read.

Kajal says, "I always carry my crystals with me. Sometimes my clients ask for an instant solution to a problem over the phone."

It's a little surprising and frightening to hear that college students indulge in tarot reading and dowsing.. providing answers to their friends and classmates' problems.

Kajal cautions, "These things are not meant for fun. It's become a fashion statement to call oneself a psychic.

"Many housewives are also practising it after picking up information from the net or reading books on healing. Without realising it, they give wrong advice to people. It's harmful to both."

Changing oneself

Dowsing crystals have to be programmed and cleaned regularly. Like any other tool, one has to know the right way of using it.. otherwise it gives wrong answers.

Kajal elaborates, "The relationship between the healer and client is based on faith. I use dowsing to solve relationship problems, health problems and even problems at work. I have clients who want to know where their relationships are heading.. they're also looking for a cure for a bad relationship."

She insists on people changing themselves rather than attempting to change situations. She adds, "A woman with an alcoholic husband should find out the root cause of his problem.

Dowsing helps to find out that and also cure it."

Joy and healing

A person gives out negative energy when he's going through a low phase or is unwell. It could also be the presence of a foreign body, popularly referred to as spirits. Dowsing helps to detect the exact location of this foreign entity.

Kajal says, "Sometimes kids come back from school in an irritable mood. Dowsing helps us to find out the reason for this. If someone is admitted to the hospital, I use health charts to find out his progress."

She also has clients asking her about the positive and negative qualities of a prospective bride or groom. She continues, "If you meet a person whom you consider as a potential match, dowsing helps to gauge what the person is all about."

Dowsing also tells you the right time to broach the topic of marriage with the person.

Kajal winds up with, "We are full of fears because of our experiences in life. These fears and other negative emotions hold us back and make us sick.

"With positive thoughts and prayer, we surround ourselves with positive energy that brings us joy, healing, prosperity, and success."

Case studies

■ A young girl was satisfied with her job but it wasn't financially rewarding. She changed her job. Through dowsing, I found out that her new job would be very satisfying financially.. but not emotionally. She prepared herself mentally for it.

She put in her best at her workplace without expecting appreciation from her boss. She took up hobby courses in the evening for satisfaction.

■ A rich couple in their 40s came to me for tarot reading. The husband was irritated with his wife because she complained of weakness, although her tests were clear.

With dowsing, I found out that she was mentally disturbed. She started crying and revealed how her mother-in-law harassed her. The husband had always been aware of this but brushed it aside as over-reaction on her part.

■ A woman in her late 30s came to me about a year ago. She was married for 16 years and had two kids. Her husband had no time for her. She had two lovers.. one provided her with material comforts while the other satisfied her physically. She wanted to choose between the three of them.

After dowsing, I advised her to stick to her husband. Today, she's a changed person. She's a healer and is encouraging others to lead balanced lives.

■ A 29-year-old girl couldn't find the right match. Her mother was paranoid. She got proposals from three men. The mother wanted to find out who was the best of the three.. she didn't want to waste time again checking out all the three.

I advised her to follow the south direction. The daughter got married to the man from South Mumbai.
